Overall Comment on planning You have provided a well-staged plan, and very good materials, with clearly defined main and sub aims. You changed one of your stage aims to practise reading for detail; however, your procedure did not match because you had described it as scanning. Overall, a good plan though, well done.
Planning Strength 1.1 aims,1.2 stages,1.3 materials,1.4 procedures,1.5 interaction patterns,1.11 terminology,1.13 professionally written

Overall Comment on teaching You had a good lead-in, Magy. Your context was relevant and engaging, and you had a lovely picture of the main train station to generate interest. You further developed the context by asking ss where they would travel if they won a free ticket, which is an interesting question. You gave clear instructions and made good use of instruction checking questions for your reading tasks, well done; now try not to answer the questions yourself, please. Your instructions for the speaking task were also clear and checked; just remember not to answer your own questions, please. Overall, your lesson was very well-staged with a good level of reading and speaking practice. Very well done for drawing the ss' attention to different parts of the exam, hence the need for practice, etc. A good start. To work on: Feedback. Good, but perhaps a more student-centred approach might be helpful - answer keys, for example. Language Models - two minutes for each, thank you so much.

TTT. Generally good; now please try not to answer your own ICQs or your own questions in general.
